Early fall feeding and seeding requires no more of your time than a mowing with a precision Scott's Spreader. Just a glance at directions for correct setting, flick of the wrist, walk over the lawn and the job is done. Scott's Weed Controls are Spreader applied with equal ease and accuracy.

The Scott's Spreader is the result of many years of testing by Scott's Lawn Research. Its design and manufacture is carefully supervised. Because of this accuracy of distribution, a Scott's Spreader will soon pay for itself in savings of materials.

The extra sturdy construction of the Scott's Spreader assures many years of efficient service. J B Yahner of Reading, Pennsylvania writes, "My Scott's Spreader is a most useful and important tool in lawn care. It certainly saves on labor, seed and fertilizer. It does the job neater, cleaner and better."

Select a Scott's Spreader according to your lawn size. Maintain your lawn the easy economical way. Now is the time to get one.

"Your No 50 Spreader (illustrated) is the finest piece of equipment on the market for the average home. It works to perfection on fine grass seed or coarse fertilizer."

Marshalltown, Iowa

"I am using my new No 25 Spreader with great success and being a lady gardener find it smooth running, light and all together a joy to handle."
